The Calacatta marble is one of the most favorite and precious material of the Apuan district. It's quarried from the Betogli mountain and it's renowned for its white background, featured with large grey veins. The Calacatta marble's background has often a warm tone and the color of the veins turns into gold. This stunning marble is suitable to enhance every kind of project, from residential to commercial; it's recommended for interior applications, book matched floors and/or feature walls, kitchen tops, luxury bathrooms.
